

Contents

	Page
Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Chapter 1 Management organization	1
Terotechnology – Maintenance terminology – Departmental function – Organization structure – Job descriptions – The maintenance manager – The role of contractors
Chapter 2 Costing	24
Plant inventory – Plant identification and numbering – Cost codes – Cost summaries – Inter-company cost comparisons – Cost indices – Cost of downtime – Use of the computer – Timesheets
Chapter 3 Planning and control – preparation	55
Organizing maintenance – The maintenance request – Planned-maintenance procedure – Maintenance schedules – Job specifications – Programming – The inspection report – History records – Planned-maintenance controller and planning staff – Planned lubrication – Work priority – Safety
Chapter 4 Planning and control – operation	90
Management information – Routine analysis of results – Systems operation – Work measurement and incentives – Manning and work loading – Critical path analysis and operational research in maintenance – Housekeeping
Chapter 5 Planning and control – progression	120
Critical analysis – Designing-out maintenance – Predictive maintenance – The maintenance budget – Maintenance management committees – Planned-maintenance benefits
Chapter 6 The central workshop	140
Purpose of workshops – Organization structure – Centralization versus decentralization – Production control – Planning and progress – Machine and labour utilization – Trading account

Chapter 7	Materials and stores control	166
	Introduction – Establishing stores – Classification and coding – Stores documentation – Purchase orders – Stock levels and re-ordering – Project-engineering materials
Chapter 8	Education and training	183
	Introduction – Definitions and outlook – Learning – Technical information – Communication – Selection and recruitment – Training for planned maintenance
Chapter 9	Case studies	210
	Appendices	227
	A Staff job descriptions	227
	B Plant-inventory preparation	233
	C How to fill in the maintenance request – Staff and supervisors' instructions	238
	D Preparation of maintenance schedules	244
	E Preparing the workshop order set	250
	References	259
	Index	261

Maintenance management techniques

Antony Corder

